

Receive God's Help One Day At A Time!

God's supply from Heaven comes to help us and others as we pray daily. The devil knows that when Christians pray daily, they keep a constant flow of God's power manifesting in their lives. The devil does his best to stop us from praying daily in order to get an advantage over us.

Luke 11:1-3 KJV And it came to pass, that, as He was praying in a certain place, when He ceased, one of His disciples said unto Him, Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples. [2] And He said unto them, When ye pray, say, Our Father which art in Heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in Heaven, so in Earth. [3] Give us day by day our daily bread.

Notice that one of Jesus' disciples was watching Him pray. When He was through, the disciple asked Him to 'teach us to pray'. Jesus then told them the Lord's prayer where He included, "Give us day by day our daily bread". We eat natural food daily; for that day, not for next week. As we eat daily, we feel strength coming into our bodies that very day. When Christians pray off and on, they will have an up and down Christian life. Jesus taught us to pray daily. Let's look at a man in the Bible that prayed daily and use him for our example.

Daniel 6:1-13,16,19-22 NCV Darius thought it would be a good idea to choose one hundred twenty governors who would rule his kingdom. [2] He chose three men as supervisors over those governors, and Daniel was one of the supervisors. The supervisors were to ensure that the governors did not try to cheat the king. [3] Daniel showed that he could do the work better than the other supervisors and governors, so the king planned to put Daniel in charge of the whole kingdom. [4] Because of this, the other supervisors and governors tried to find reasons to accuse Daniel about his work in the government. But they could not find anything wrong with him or any reason to accuse him, because he was trustworthy and not lazy or dishonest. [5] Finally these men said, "We will never find any reason to accuse Daniel unless it is about the law of his God." [6] So the supervisors and governors went as a group to the king and said: "King Darius, live forever! [7] The supervisors, assistant governors, governors, the people who advise you, and the captains of the soldiers have all agreed that you should make a new law for everyone to obey: For the next thirty days no one should pray to any god or human except to you, O king. Anyone who doesn't obey will be thrown into the lions' den. [8] Now, O king, make the law and sign your name to it so that it cannot be changed, because then it will be a law of the Medes and Persians and cannot be canceled." [9] So King Darius signed the law. [10] Even though Daniel knew that the new law had been written, he went to pray in an upstairs room in his house, which had windows that opened toward Jerusalem. Three times each day Daniel would kneel down to pray and thank God, just as he always had done. [11] Then those men went as a group and found Daniel praying and asking God for help. [12] So they went to the king and talked to him about the law he had made. They said, "Didn't you sign a law that says no one may pray to any god or human except you, O king? Doesn't it say that anyone who disobeys during the next thirty days will be thrown into the lions' den?" The king answered, "Yes, that is the law, and the laws of the Medes and Persians cannot be canceled." [13] Then they said to the king, "Daniel, one of the captives from Judah, is not paying attention to you, O king, or to the law you signed. Daniel still prays to his God three times every day."...

[16] So King Darius gave the order, and Daniel was brought in and thrown into the lions' den. The king said to Daniel, "May the God you serve all the time save you!"

[19] The next morning King Darius got up at dawn and hurried to the lions' den. [20] As he came near the den, he was worried. He called out to Daniel, "Daniel, servant of the living God! Has your God that you always worship been able to save you from the lions?" [21] Daniel answered, "O king, live forever! [22] My God sent his angel to close the lions' mouths. They have not hurt me, because my God knows I am innocent. I never did anything wrong to you, O king."

Daniel prayed daily, and God delivered and promoted him. Remember, praying daily will release God's power on your behalf.
